Paid up members of current courses are welcome to attend tomorrow's free turning morning at the workshop.

Why not take advantage of this opportunity to complete that turning you've been meaning to complete before Christmas. Time is running out.

Duty Officer – STEPHEN O'Connor

Here's a novel idea for a money box turned by Tuesday's team member ROBERT Pendergrast. Simply remove the finial with a twisting action and a slot for a two-dollar coin is revealed.

If this box was filled to capacity then how much in $2-money would be stored?

THIS WEEK'S TOP TURNING

JOHN from the Tuesday team made his acorn-inspired pot using three timbers: macrocarpa, rimu and maire.

If this seed was planted a “mac-ri-mai” tree would grow.

The dremel tool was used to create the textured effects.

THIS WEEK'S COMPLETED PROJECTS

CHRIS from the Wednesday team started, turned and finished this project of poplar wood in less time than the three-hour session.

Wow!

The nifty-designed bowl is even-walled and has a great finish.

MALCOLM from the Tuesday team completed his Christmas prezzie project.

Three wine-bottle holders - each with an inlay of an old copper penny.

Great work with a great idea.

Wednesday's ROBBIE used NZ Lancewood to turn his natural edge bowl. Smooth finish and even-walled job at first shot at the idea.

A Goodonya gong for this one.

Tuesday's CHRIS laminated three slabs of oak then turned this dog-dish bowl.

"Bob" the dog gets lucky this Christmas.

GARY's focus for some time now has been on making things for other folk.

His journey continues with a small magnolia wood bowl and a few spinning tops for the young-at-heart.

Already he has gathered six small blocks for more dinky turnings.

IVAN's first shot at turning a larger size bowl using the "external" spigot process.

A top effort here resulted in a quality turning featuring an impressive finish.
