It is only one week to go until the market day at Elliot Park. If you have items to sell make sure you get them to the clubrooms before 1 December. More details below.

Also in this issue, a photo of the happy faces of night class. By the next issue the class will be finished, but we will include photos of some of their finished work. The class will run again next year so if you know of anyone who might be interested, now is your chance to recruit and introduce someone to the joys of woodturning.

We have our last committee meeting for the year on the 5 December, so if you have any thoughts, comments, concerns make sure you let a committee member know.

Toy Making Day

Tomorrow is toy making day. The Teslas above are some of our latest additions to our collection to go to charity.

If you have toys to contribute or want help making some, be at the clubrooms from 9 am onwards.

2 December
Elliot Park, Nawton

This is our chance to sell some of what we have created during the year.

Contact ; Michael for queries
Phone 07 8719581

Want to be involved?

Selling.

- Leave your items to be sold at the clubrooms before the 1 December.
- Label clearly with your name and expected price.
- To cover costs, the club takes a 15% commission on each sale

A selection of night class people displaying their finished work. You can see their analytical minds at work as they study the outcomes. There are 7 in the class altogether and they are making great progress. By the time you receive the next Tutors Tidings the class will be finished for the year but we will include of display of some of their amazing work.

Grand Prize

The grand prize for the best turned out work of the year goes to.....

Sheryl ' Nigella' O'Connor

For her consistent high quality work creating blueberry muffins for the Working Bees.

We get less work done, but we enjoy ourselves more when these are on offer.

Thanks Sheryl
